Introduction

At Vistrol, we are dedicated to operating our business in an ethical and responsible manner. We recognize the importance of taking steps to prevent modern slavery and human trafficking in our operations and supply chains. This Modern Slavery Statement outlines our commitment and actions taken to address this critical issue.

Our Commitment

We are committed to:

1. Compliance: Ensuring compliance with the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and other applicable laws and regulations related to modern slavery.
2. Transparency: Providing transparency in our supply chain by conducting due diligence to identify and address modern slavery risks.
3. Collaboration: Collaborating with our suppliers, contractors, and stakeholders to combat modern slavery effectively.

We are committed to preventing acts of modern slavery and human trafficking from occurring within our business and supply chain. We have a zero-tolerance approach to all forms of exploitation, particularly modern slavery, including servitude, forced or compulsory labour and human trafficking and we expect our suppliers to adopt the same approach.

Our Code of Conduct supports our position of business ethics, and we expect our employees, suppliers, and contractors to subscribe to our values. We are continuously developing our due diligence and internal auditing approaches to identify and challenge any risks of human rights abuses within our supply chain and work with our suppliers to improve their practices wherever we identify any concerns.

All Vistrol staff, employees and stakeholders are informed about our policy on modern slavery and are required to report any concerns to the management team. They are also encouraged to use the internal "whistleblowing" platform if they are concerned the company has not acted on any issues raised.
